

ADAPTIVE TENNIS CLINIC

With Wimbledon Champion, U.S. Davis Cup Team Captain, and member of the ITF Hall of Fame

DENNIS RALSTON

Sunday, March 8, 2015 12:00 – 4:00 PM
Murr Indoor Tennis Center, Harvard University
65 North Harvard St. Boston, MA 02134

Get coached by one of the game's greatest, five-time major champion and Davis Cup Captain Dennis Ralston. Now a lower-leg amputee himself, Ralston continues to play and teach – coaching wheelchair tennis Paralympian Francisca Mardones. First timers and seasoned players of all ages who have physical impairments, whether you play standing up or using a wheelchair, will learn the basics or leave with pointers that only an expert coach can provide. Small group sessions by age, experience and playing style will maximize learning from Coach Ralston, Head Harvard Tennis Professional Michael Mercier, and additional USPTA New England wheelchair tennis professionals. Equipment will be provided or bring your own.

PRE-REGISTRATION REQUIRED

Get details and register at www.adaptivesportsne.org.

More info 617-982-2763/events@adaptivesportsne.org

Presented by Adaptive Sports New England and hosted by Harvard University Recreation, Harvard Club Tennis, and Harvard Men's & Women's Varsity Tennis Teams.

Players must be able to independently participate in a group setting including independent mobility on foot or using a manual wheelchair. Enrollment limited to 40 participants.

To sponsor or support the clinic, contact joe.walsh@adaptivesportsne.org or call 617-690-9103.